

INKLING Grace land

Grace Kelly may have passed away nearly 30 years ago, but thanks to her well-documented personal style – not to mention the enduring appeal of the princess fantasy – her legacy shows no signs of abating. German luxury goods label Montblanc has dedicated an entire collection to her memory, which includes this Princesse Grace de Monaco fountain pen in royal purple, with a handcrafted, solid 18ct gold nib and a petal-shaped pink topaz on the lid clip. Calligraphy lessons not included. $1100. 1300 364 810.

The shining

Inject some lustre into daily life with sleek, well-designed products that are sure to keep things running smoothly.

A LOT OF HOT AIR From the company that turned the humble vacuum cleaner into a design museum exhibit comes a fan heater that turns the simple act of staying warm into a declaration of style. The Dyson Hot+Cool provides quick and even room heating, not to mention a high-tech aesthetic thanks to its running track-shaped “loop amplifier” and glossy finish in white/silver or iron/blue. $549. www.dyson.com.au

The old-fashioned cradle phone gets a minimalist makeover from yodelling telco geeks Swissvoice. An object lesson in less is more, the ePure cordless telephone contains technology for reducing “electro-smog” and power consumption, yet has an indoor range of up to 50m. Available in red, white and black. $110 (or $169 for a twin set). www.formanddesign.com.au

Saddle up and live the dream of the cashmere set with Ralph Lauren's Big Pony fragrances for women. Number 4 is a heady mix of cherry and purple amber. 1300 651 991.

TIME OUT After hours

Timeless elegance has an address – it's at the end of Highway 27 on Long Island, according to Baume & Mercier. The Swiss watch brand's Hampton collection includes this classic ladies' timepiece, which features a curved sapphire crystal and 0.38ct of diamonds. $5230. (02) 8215 5572.

Make like Prometheus and rock the “bound by chains” look with this Affranchie silver bracelet by Hermès. An update on its classic Chaîne d'ancre, this is serious hardware for a better class of wrist. $4155. (02) 9287 3200.

Small but powerful, this portable hi-fi system boasts an FM radio, alarm clock, digital amp, stereo speakers and Bluetooth capacity for wireless streaming from smartphones and tablets. Weighing just 500g and housed in a diminutive clam-shell case, the Geneva Model XS comes with a rechargeable lithium battery, but can also be powered from the mains. Available in red, white and black. $299. www.genevalab.com.au
