

VIVID SYDNEY 2014

SYDNEY vivid
LIGHT, MUSIC & IDEAS

GET IN EARLY AND PLAN YOUR VIVID VISIT

Vivid Sydney will once again light up and entertain the city from 23 May to 9 June 2014.

The annual 18 day event of light, music and ideas is Sydney's major festival during Winter, attracting hundreds of thousands of Australian and international visitors.

In 2013, Vivid Sydney expanded to include exciting new precincts such as Darling Harbour, the Light Walk along Walsh Bay and North Sydney and the lighting of the Sydney Harbour Bridge.

In 2014, Vivid Sydney will continue to transform Sydney into a creative canvas, with 3D projections on historic buildings, great music at the Sydney Opera House, the exchange of ideas at the Museum of Contemporary Art and many new activities at several other locations.

Tell all your friends and family to start planning their visit to Vivid Sydney 2014, book accommodation, check out all the other things to do including great musicals. Remember to book early to enjoy great dining in prime locations at Circular Quay, The Rocks, Darling Harbour and hundreds of great restaurants.

When: 23 May - 9 June 2014

Where: Various locations around Sydney

 vividssydney.com

SCAN TO SEE VIVID SYDNEY LIKE NEVER BEFORE

VIVID LIGHTS

Explore and watch in awe as Vivid transforms the city over 18 spectacular nights with the latest interactive 3D digital lighting technology.

VIVID MUSIC

The best in cutting-edge music and multi-media, innovative international artists and local stars will rock the city at Sydney Opera House and other venues.

VIVID IDEAS

Connect with global leaders in the creative industries in a series of events where they unveil the ideas that will shape the world in the years to come.

